PERIODICALS

HISPANIC AMERICAN HISTORICAL REVIEW. A quarterly review dealing with the study of the history of the Latin-American countries in all of its aspects conducted with the co-operation of a representative group of American scholars. Subscription, $4.00 a year.

A limited number of sets of complete files of the REVIEW are still available at $5.00 the volume.

THE SOUTH ATLANTIC QUARTERLY. A magazine which serves as a medium for the expression of views on social, literary, and historical subjects. While not limited to a section, it contains many articles dealing with the South. It is now in its twenty-eighth year. Subscription, $3.00 a year.

Owing to a fire, there are no complete files of the South Atlantic Quarterly available. Several sets almost complete are still to be had. For prices, write to the Manager of Duke University Press, Durham, North Carolina.

AMERICAN LITERATURE. Duke University has recently established a quarterly journal devoted to research in the field of American literature. This periodical is "published by the Duke University Press with the co-operation of the American Literature Group of the Modern Language Association of America." Its scope and purpose are indicated in its name, AMERICAN LITERATURE: A Quarterly Journal of American Literary History, Criticism, and Bibliography. Subscription, $4.00 a year. Back files, $5.00 the volume.

The board of editors consists of the following well-known representatives in the field of American literature: Jay B. Hubbell, Duke University, chairman; Kenneth B. Murdock, Harvard University; Ralph Leslie Rusk, Columbia University; Fred Lewis Pattee, Pennsylvania State College; and W. B. Cairns, the University of Wisconsin.

The journal fills a need which has been felt for some time. The support given it by the very active American literature scholars in the Modern Language Association insures its high quality. The first number appeared in March, 1929.
